where to go for help

Fair Work Commission

T: 1300 799 675
W: fwc.gov.au
Level 14, Central Plaza Two, 66 Eagle Street, Brisbane Qld 4000

Fair Work Australia is the national workplace relations tribunal. It is an independent body with power to carry out a range of functions relating to the safety net of minimum wages and employment conditions, enterprise bargaining, industrial action, dispute resolution, termination of employment, non-payment of wages and other workplace matters.

Fair Work Ombudsman

T: 13 13 94
W: fairwork.gov.au

The Fair Work Ombudsman offers people a single point of contact for them to get accurate and timely information about Australia's workplace relations system, educates people working in Australia about fair work practices, rights and obligations, will investigate complaints or suspected contraventions of workplace laws, awards and agreements, litigates to enforce workplace laws and deter people from doing wrong in the community, builds strong and effective relationships with industry, unions and other stakeholders.

Unions

If you are a member of a Union you should contact them for legal assistance in the first instance.

TIME LIMITS

Time limits in relation to employment law can be extremely short. Please refer to Caxton's Have you lost your job? kit for details.
