who use violence, abuse and coercion within relationships

CAXTON COMMUNITY LEGAL CENTRE

provides free legal and social support services to people who experience disadvantage, trauma and marginalisation.

OUR GOALS

- keep women and children safe by working directly with consenting males who use violence, abuse and coercion within intimate, family or informal care relationships
- hold men accountable for their offending whilst addressing a pattern of behaviours and associated needs or issues

WHAT WE OFFER

Timely case management support by a social worker for individual men in the Greater Brisbane area to reduce the risks of committing domestic and family violence and of reoffending. This may include flexible assistance over several months with:

- homelessness, substance misuse and mental health services
- access to programs that support changes in behaviour.

WHO CAN REFER

- specialist services
- courts
- police
- community and government agencies
- individuals
