Overview of Caxton

Caxton Community Legal Centre's purpose is to promote and protect human rights in Queensland through access to justice. Caxton provides accessible legal information so people know their rights and can prevent or respond to legal problems. Prioritising those who experience disadvantage, trauma and marginalization, Caxton provides free, high-quality legal assistance and social supports. Caxton advocates for reform to unfair laws, policies and systems. Working collaboratively with volunteers and community partners, Caxton reaches underserved populations. We do all of this to create a more just and inclusive Queensland.

Our values:

Caxton approaches people and its work in the community with a commitment to:

- Accountability and Responsibility - going above and beyond what is expected
- Compassion and Empathy - showing our genuine concern for others
- Respect – valuing all people no matter what
- Integrity - saying and doing the right thing
- Collaboration - believing in the power of working with others

Primary purpose of the role

This role is responsible for providing legal advice and casework across the Family Law and Domestic Violence programs of Caxton, inclusive of rostered duty lawyer services in Brisbane and in regional areas and representation at Family Dispute Resolution Conferences. The role also contributes to supervising volunteers, supervising student legal clinics (family law), supervising PLT students and secondees, delivering community legal education, and contributing to law reform.

Key accountabilities

- Apply in-depth existing knowledge of relevant areas of law to deliver legal advice and casework within the family law and domestic violence programs, including as a rostered duty lawyer (approx. 2 days per week) Work collaboratively with social workers to provide holistic, client-centered services to diverse clients within a human rights framework
- Deliver community education, engage in sector development and networking, contribute to law and policy reform
- Provide supervision to restricted practitioners, PLT students, secondees and volunteers (level 6 role and not line management)

Key challenges

- Providing trauma-informed, culturally appropriate, client-centred and high quality services within the constraints of program activities especially as a duty lawyer.
- Identifying clients who require ongoing legal and non-legal support and undertaking well-scoped work and/or making appropriate referrals to other programs of Caxton
- Working in a multidisciplinary practice framework for the holistic benefit of clients
